RULES

1. Dogs on leads will be allowed on these routes.
2. This event is for walkers only; there is no provision for runners within the schedule.
3. Persons under 16 years must be accompanied by a person over the age of 18 years. Entrants under 18 years of age on the day of the event must have Declaration signed by a parent or guardian.
4. Checkpoints must be visited in the correct sequence during their opening times and the route description MUST be followed.
5. Walkers wishing to shorten their route after starting may only do so at CP 3, Romney Street following the instructions of the marshals.
6. Marshals have the right to withdraw entrants if their fitness is in doubt, the country code has been ignored or if they are behind schedule and unlikely to finish within the time allowed.
7. Checkpoint cards must be clipped by a marshal at each checkpoint and are to be handed in to the reception desk at the finish to enable all walkers to be accounted for.
8. If you retire, do so at a checkpoint, informing a marshal who will endorse the time and retirement on the checkpoint card. The organisers will arrange transport to the finish where your card must be handed to the reception desk. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHOULD ANYONE RETIRE WITHOUT INFORMING THE ORGANISERS.
9. When crossing fields of growing crops please follow the footpath and walk in single file.
10. Keep to the right of way at all times and observe the Country Code and the Highway Code.
11. The organisers may vary the distances without notice.
12. Substitute entries for non-starters will NOT be accepted unless they are received at least seven days before the event due to the additional work involved.
